PROCEEDINGS

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1947

According to the decision of the last session, held with Saint Galilee Church of Christ, Elizabeth City, North Carolina, the Washington-Norfolk Annual District Assembly in Eastern North Carolina and Virginia met with the Mt. Hebron Church of Christ, Washington, North Carolina, Elder J. R. Green, Pastor.

At 11 a. m., the assembly met with Chief Elder W. H. Peel in the chair. The devotional exercise was conducted by Elder W. M. Slade, who lined hymn No. 151, "Farther I stretch my hands to thee," and read for the Scripture lesson St. John 14: 1-10. Prayer was offered by Elder B. J. Mackey. The assembly joined in singing "There is joy in that land." Elder W. M. Slade presented to the assembly Elder John Forbes, who came forward with graceful diction, and selected for the guide sermon I Samuel 1:10 Ps. 57:7 "My heart is fixed." Theme: The two hearts. The fixed heart and the unfixed heart. The speaker laid great stress upon the right kind of leadership. The speaker did justice to his theme. Elder W. M. Slade extended the invitation to those out of Christ. Chief Elder W. H. Peel emphasized the fact that the sermon was preached in purity and truth.

Elder William Hedgbeth solicited the offering; amount $17.11.

Intermission 20 minutes.

12:30 p. m., the assembly reassembled with Chief Elder W. H. Peel presiding. The meeting was introduced by voluntary singing. Chief Elder W. H. Peel came forward and delivered his annual address which was very instructive and inspiring, flavored with beautiful quotations from the Bible. It was resolved that the order of business be as heretofore.

Johnson, who came forward singing "What are they doing in Heaven," and selected for his text: "For Me to Live in Christ, and to Die is Gain," Phil. 1: 21. Theme: "Gain of Death." The speaker did justice to his eulogistical theme and the result was inspiring for curage to live on. Preacher, Sister Dora Gaston led song, "Does Jesus Care."

The finance solicitors came forward and solicited the offering, $33.27. Benediction by Assistant Chief Elder S. W. R. Keys.

✦

FRIDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

2:30 P. M. the assembly re-assembled for the dispatch of business, with Chief Elder W. H. Peel presiding. The various committees made their reports. Their reports were received and the committees discharged.

3:00 P. M., Elder Claude Winstead delivered the address of thanks, which was flavored with timely remarks to cope with the occasion.

It was resolved that St. Peter Church of Christ, Elizabeth City, N. C., be given an extension of time to pay their loan. It was also ordered that Gum Neck Church of Christ be given an extension of time to pay their loan.

The buyers of the School Farm at Pantego, N. C., were given time to sell crops before paying notes, now due.

It was resolved that the next assembly be held with Uniontown Church of Christ, Jamesville, N. C., on Tuesday, before the Second Lord's Day in October, 1948, Elder Joseph James Pastor. Elder Claude Winstead was selected to preach the Guide Sermon, alternated by Elder W. R. Butts.

FRIDAY NIGHT SERVICE

7:30 P. M. the assembly met for preaching; the devotional exercise was promoted by voluntary singing and prayer offering. The sermon was delivered by Chief Elder W. C. Gilliam, of the Great North Eastern Assembly. Dr. Gilliam preached with power and ease, which proved his familiarity with the Bible. The result was food for the soul. May Dr. Gilliam live long to preach the Word of God.

The public collection was given to the speaker, Chief Elder W. C. Gilliam and the host church. Thus closed the Forty-Fifth Annual Assembly to meet again with Uniontown Church of Christ on Tuesday before the Second Lord's Day in October, 1948.

Elder W. H. Peel, Chief; Noah Boston, Scribe.

Washington, N. C., March 4, 1947.

The Joint-Councils of the General Assembly met with the Church of Christ, Mt. Mebron, Washington, on the aforesaid date, with Senior Bishop presiding.

Devotional—Jr. Bishop W. C. Gillam read 133 Ps. Invocation by Elder W. G. Best; song No. 147 was sung. then Senior Bishop E. F. Johnson announced the house in order for business and outlined the order of the day. After some discussion a proposal prevailed that the house go into a committee as a whole.

Resolutions considered—No. 3 read, agreed that: Each assembly meet annually, the same week, at their scheduled time, on the day suitable to their constituents.

Then the Greviences of the Churches were disposed: That no Church shall represent outside its District. and no Chief shall receive the representation of any Church outside his district.

That each member of the local churches pay $100 in all of the assemblies to the General Assembly for Educational Purposes.

That speakers be appointed to visit the churches and collect funds for Educational Purposes.

We were then dismissed. General Bishop E. F. Johnson, and A. B. Aycock, General Secretary.
